Your Conference needs you

The working focus for conference is 'The Key to International Success'. Abstracts should refer to evidence based practice and offer practical solutions to handling the challenge of working in specific areas of people and load management practices.

In addition to research based presentations, we would again like to include a 'back to basics' element . Feedback from previous conferences shows that delegates enjoy the sessions where they are interactive and practical, using case studies, problem solving and discussion.

Abstracts to be in please by Monday 1st December 2008
